

Contact: William Wille, (800) 942-7124, ext. 3216; will.wille@ilcusys.org

For Immediate Release

League's Annual Legislative Day Event to kick off tomorrow

Naperville, IL., March 23, 2010 – Nearly 140 credit union activists are expected to be in attendance as Illinois Governor Patrick Quinn kicks off the Illinois Credit Union League's (ICUL) annual legislative day and reception, to be held tomorrow at the President Abraham Lincoln Hotel in Springfield.

Other event highlights will include:

- A regulatory update with officials from the National Credit Union Administration (NCUA), including board member Michael Fryzel and Robert Meza, director of the Division of Financial Institutions (DFI) of the Illinois Department of Financial and Professional Regulation (IDFPR), who will provide an update on Illinois' state-chartered credit unions;
- ICUL staff members Steve Olson, executive vice president, general counsel and COO, and Keith Sias, director of state governmental affairs, who will brief participants on current issues critical to credit unions;
- State Capitol visits, where event participants will be shuttled to the Capitol so they can personally call on their lawmakers; and
- The event and evening will be capped off by a legislative reception at the Governor's Mansion, a new location for this event. More than 40 lawmakers from both sides of the aisle and other dignitaries will attend.

The Illinois General Assembly is scheduled to adjourn its Spring legislative session on May 7, 2010.

###

Note: The Illinois Credit Union System is the primary trade association for credit unions in Illinois, which provides members with information, legislation, and education. Membership is open to any credit union operating in accordance with the Illinois Credit Union Act or the Federal Credit Union Act. There are 402 credit unions in Illinois serving more than 2.7 million members.